CIAO Architecture Documentation

Repository: `176Anjali/DOOM-Game`

Model: `llama3.2:3b`

Executive Summary

This report analyzes the architecture and components of the DOOM game repository.

System Purpose

The system purpose is to simulate a game environment with various game objects and NPCs.

Architecture and Components

The architecture components include the Game class, Map class, NPC class, and ObjectHandler class.

Important Data Flows

The important data flows include the player's movement, NPC movement, and collision detection.

Technologies and Entry Points

The technologies used include Pygame, and the entry points are the main.py file and the map.py file.

Risks and Open Questions

The risks include the potential for bugs and security vulnerabilities, and the open questions include the implementation of AI for NPCs.